Dear Parade Participant:

For the past forty-one years, Adelante of Suffolk County, Inc. has sponsored the Annual Puerto Rican/Hispanic Day Parade in Brentwood, NY. This year, we will be celebrating our 43rd anniversary and are looking forward to having a very successful parade and 1st annual festival.

We would like to invite you to participate in this year's parade and join us on Fifth Avenue to celebrate our rich and colorful heritage under this year's theme: “Celebrating Latino Pride in a Changing America-Yes We Can!” Our parade will be held on June 7, 2009, beginning at 12:00 noon. The starting point will be on Bailey Avenue and “Adelante Boulevard” (Fifth Avenue) and will proceed north to Third Avenue in Brentwood.

Our Parade Committee has established some rules, in order to maintain certain standards associated with parade protocol, which will only help to enhance this event. A reasonable participation fee has also been established for organizations and businesses, in order to help defray the costs involved.

Please complete and return the enclosed form, including the fee, and Certificate of Liability Insurance (if you have a vehicle in the parade), as well as the information card, to confirm your participation, no later than May 11, 2009. Applications will not be accepted after this date. You will receive notification of your assembly point approximately 10 days prior to the date of the parade. Enclosed is a sample of the Certificate of Liability Insurance Form that you will need to obtain from your insurance agent, if you are entering a vehicle in the parade. Should you require additional information, please contact us at (631) 434-3481, ext. 14.

We would like to thank you in advance for your prompt response to our invitation and look forward to seeing you on Sunday, June 7, 2009.

Very truly yours,

NOEMI ROBINSON
Participation Committee
